

Creating community projects that do not cost the Earth

This checklist has been designed to help you consider and incorporate sustainable actions into new planned project(s).

Please use this checklist to, wherever possible, to create more sustainable actions within your planned project.

What is your project?
Brief description:
Will your project...	Y	N	If no, could it & how?	Optional Who will do it?	When?
Encourage walking, cycling and the use of public transport? Will it:
Promote walking and cycling?
Provide information on local public transport?
Have or be near to good public transport links?
Provide minibuses to transport groups around or provide lifts to share opportunities?
Other?

Conserve energy?
Will it:
Help make buildings more energy efficient?
Install energy efficient light bulbs and appliances?
Consider using green energy or seek renewable energy sources?
Switch off appliances at the end of the day?
Other?
Food and sustainable products?
Will it:
Source locally produced foods and products where appropriate?
Source organic produce?
Source fair trade products?
Source environmentally friendly products such as recycled paper wherever possible?
Seek products from sustainable sources where appropriate?
Others?

Minimise waste?
Will it:
Prevent waste being generated in the first place?
Use recycled or second hand furniture where appropriate?
Can any waste generated be recycled?
Consider sharing/borrowing resources with others where appropriate?
Other?
Will it:
Conserve and enhance the historic environment?
Will it:
Contribute to the protection and enhancement of landscape?
Will it:
Contribute to the protection of wildlife?
Will it:
Protect air and water quality?					